Dear Col. Poni:

Your letter of June 5th was awaiting me upon my return from a few days vacation.

During my absence, the question of Tscherim Soobzokov's two weeks leave of absence during July had been reviewed with his immediate Supervisor and personally with him.

It is the feeling of all concerned that if there is an essential service he can perform for his adopted country, which in the briefness of time will not jeopardize his financial situation or his career progress, this he should do. I am heartily in accord with the conclusion.

Yours sincerely,
